MOURNING over departed spirits—A man sitting on an empty cask.

QUICK AND EASY CURE FOR FOUNDER.—Many years ago I learned a cure for founder in horses, which is so simple, and has proved so successful in my hands, that I send it to you, thinking it may be of service to some of your readers. Clean out the bottom of the foot thoroughly—hold up the leg so as to bring the bottom of the hoof upward, holding it firmly in a horizontal position and pour in, say a table spoonful of spirits turpentine, if the cavity will hold that much—if not pour in what it will hold, without danger of running over; touch the turpentine with a red hot iron (this will set it on fire) hold the hoof firmly in position until it all burns out. Great care must be taken that none runs over on the hair of the hoof, lest the skin be burned. If all the feet are affected, burn turpentine in each of them—relief will speedily follow and the animal be ready for service in a short time. I once applied this remedy to a horse which had been foundered twenty-four hours before I saw him, and he was promptly relieved. In another case, where the animal could hardly be induced to move, his suffering was so great, he was treated in the same manner, as soon as his trouble was discovered: and in less than an hour afterwards, he was hitched to a buggy and driven some twenty-five miles the same day—all lameness disappearing after he had traveled a few miles.—Ben. W. Wood, in Southern Cultivator.

STRAIN THE BUTTERMILK.

A correspondent of the Germantown Telegraph says:—Place a common wire seive over a pail, draw or turn the buttermilk into it, gently stirring the bottom with a spoon; what is saved in the seive can be put into a jar, and when a quantity accumulates it can be stewed out by placing it in an iron kettle and simmering slowly until the oil or butter rises on top and the sediment settles to the bottom.—It makes good shortening for pie crust, and makes excellent cream biscuits.

DRY FRUIT.—We hope that every pound of fruit will be dried this year that can possibly be saved. As an evidence of what perseverance will do we will state that Mrs. Mary Chipman, of the Deep River neighborhood, with the assistance of a daughter and granddaughter, dried last year 2,000 pounds of fruit—which she sold for about $400—which, save the labor, was free of cost! Many a farmer works hard and don't do half so well. If our county was full of such energetic old ladies, not a berry, cherry, peach or apple would be allowed to rot, but be turned into greenbacks.—Greensboro Patriot.

To catch your own shadow is a very amusing trick, and in order to do it well you must drink two pints of whiskey on a moonlight night, then start for home, observing your shadow at full length before you.—Jis' drop flat on your face, let your nose go 2 inches into the ground, so as to make the shadow secure. Lie there till placed in a wheel-barrow by a policeman who feels it his duty to take you home.

THE ANNUAL AGGREGATE.

Carefully compiled statistics show that 60 000 lives are annually destroyed by intemperance in the United States; 20 000 children are yearly sent to the poor houses for the same reason; 300 murders are another of the yearly fruits of intemperance; 400 suicides follow these fearful catalogues of miseries; 200 000 orphans are bequeathed each year to private and public charity; $20 000 000 are yearly expended to produce this shocking amount of crime and misery, and as much more is lost from the same cause; and the amont of misery resulting is beyond all human calculation.—Ex.

AN Irishman who had blistered his fingers by endeavoring to draw on a pair of boots, exclaimed, "By St. Patrick! I believe I shall never get em' on until I wear them a day or two."

SPURZHEIM was lecturing on phrenology.

"What is to be considered the organ of drunkenness?" said the professor.

"The barrel organ," shouted one of the audience.

THE LECTURE.—Rev. Jno. R. Brooks, Lecturer for the Order of Friends of Temperance in North Carolina, entertained a goodly number of the ladies and gentlemen of our city, for an hour or more, in the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening last, with a very interesting and instructive address on Temperance, which was replete with wholesome truths and startling statistics concerning the injurious effect of alcoholic drinks upon the entire system of man. This address was received with marked attention by the audience, and we do sincerely trust that it will have a tendency to promote the ever glorious cause of Temperance in this our rum-besieged town.

ABOLISHED.—The Supreme Council, at its last session, abolished the office of Local Vice President in Subordinate Councils and bestowed the duties of that office upon the incumbent Ex-president. By application to Secretary of State Council commissions can be obtained.

What shall hinder man or woman, under the influence of so powerful an opiate to their understanding, as strong drink, from proceeding to any crime? Nothing on their own part, for they have drunk themselves into the condtion to be their own tempters; shame, fear, prudence, and reason being all laid asleep.

IT WASN'T A CHICKEN.—Certain circles are agog about a trick recently played upon a city official somewhat addicted to the use of intoxicating beverages. Once or twice he had pushed his excesses to the verge of mania, and being possessed of many excelient qualities, was generous, brilliant, and but for this single vice might reach any position he might aspire to. His friends had exhausted every possible means to redeem him, unsuccessfully, and three or four of them a few evenings since concluded they would impress him with the idea that he had mania a potu. To accomplish this purpose they got him into a room in which they had previously introduced a chicken.—Conversing quietly for a few moments his eyes finally rested on the rooster, perched on a desk, evidently somewhat excited in his unusual retreat.

"Why hello! how came that chicken in here?"

"What chicken?" inquired one of his friends.

"Why, there, on the desk."

"I see no chicken."

"Nor I!"

"Nor I!" repeated his friends.

"Why, just look on the desk!"

All of them looked, but professed to see nothing.

"Why, you certainly are blind."

His companions by this time were looking very grave, and casting at each other suspicious glances.

"Mania!" whispered one.

"Yes, poor fellow, I was afraid it would come to that at last!"

"What are you talking about?" excitedly demanded the victim, the perspiration starting out on his forehead, and a singular pallor creeping into his face.

"Poor fellow," murmured one.

"We had better send for a physician," said another.

This was more than the man could endure.

It would never do, he thought, to have it suspected he was afflicted with mania a potu. Summoning all his resolution, therefore, he bursted out in a loud laugh, saying: "Why, gentlemen, I was only jesting. I don't see any chicken, either. Did you think I was in earnest?"

A clergyman on one occasion received no fee for marrying a parsimonious couple, and, meeting them several months after in a social gathering, took up the baby and exclaimed: "I believe I have a mortgage on this child!" Baby's father, rather than have an explanation before the company, quietly handed over a $5 bill.

If a Colt's Pistol has six barrels how many ought a horse pistol to have?

No person ever got stung by hornets who kept away from where they were. It is just so with bad habits.

There are now nineteen prisoners confined in the County jail at this place.

WEDNESDAY AUG. 4, 1869.

The Coming Eclipse of the Sun.

"Demonstrated, next to Omnipotence," once said the philosophical Abraham Lincoln, "is the greatest word in our language;" and the great truths of the science of astronomy are demonstrated in the precision with which for months and years ahead eclipses of the sun and moon are predicted, and the line of the moon's shadow across the earth or of the earth's shadow over the moon.—Of course these calculations all depend upon the precison of the sublime clockwork of our solar system, which has been demonstrated as absolutely infallible. No human chronometer, for instance, has yet been made to run within its small compass the circuit of the year with the precision with which this rolling globe we inhabit completes its yearly circle of six hundred millions of miles around the sun. The delicate perfection of such stupendous machinery is simply inconceivable; but it is demonstrated, and we must work from that point, because we can go no further.

And so, on Saturday next the 7th of August, we are promised that sublime phenomenon, when the sun—

In dim eclipse, disastrous twilight sheds
On half the nations, and with fear of change
Perplexes monarchs.

The eclipse will be a total one, beginning at sunrise of the 8th in the Pacific Ocean, east of Japan, in latitude thirty-six degrees and fifty-three minutes, and the line of the total eclipse crossing into Alaska runs thence southeastwardly across this Continent, ending in the Atlantic Ocean off the North Carolina coast from Beaufort at sunset. It will be the sunset of the 7th on this coast, while it will be sunrise of the 8th on the Pacific, near Japan. Extensive preparations have been made by a company of government officers for an expedition to Iowa under Professor William Harkness for the purpose of observing the eclipse; for very interesting and important demonstrations are made from these eclipses, reaching even to the materials of the sun itself. Professor Harkness will set up his observatory near Des Moines, and will be provided with all the necessary instruments, including three telescopes for photographic, spectroscopic and meteorological observations. Various colleges and observatories of the different States along the line will also take part in these scientific observations, and we expect some savans from Europe to assist on the occasion. A general storm, however, may spoil all these arrangements between Iowa and North Carolina.

Last year, on the 17th of August, there was a total eclipse of the sun in the Eastern hemisphere, crossing India to Aden, on the Red Sea, and thence over the Continent of Africa. Very gratifying results were obtained from the scientific observations made at Aden, Bombay and other points, and from those experiments and the new instruments employed therein still more valuable and instructive facts, it is expected, will be established from the more elaborate preparations for the coming eclipse.

[Our New York Letter.]

New York Fashions.

NEW YORK, August, 1869.

The high still splendor of August days finds few of the devotees of Fashion in town, Yet much fashionable dressing may be seen daily on the streets and in the squares and parks. Ladies seem to run to ecru this season. Never before was there seen so much unbleached linen and unbleached lawn and silk dyed to the unbleached linen tint—that is dyed in a tint which is the very ghost of a color. A new lace—guipure—of the same indefinite shade is used to trim linen and lawn. The silk suits are usually trimmed with many rows of black velvet ribbon laid on flat, or else with pinked ruches of the same material as the dress—this latter being much the most stylish. With black trimming large hoops of dead jet are worn in the ears, large dead jet chains about the neck, or else the inevitable bit of black velvet with jet and dead gold locket attached. Often, indeed, both are worn as ladies have an idea that their necks are made to look doubly nice and white by contrast with the black streamer. On the contrary they all look as if they were well nigh choked; and, besides that black velvet is really too hot for midsummer. With self-colored trimmings a profusion of coral is worn; ecru and coral color go admirably together, besides coral looks and feels so cool and sea breezy.

The newest thing in the way of trimming is to flounce light colored silk with sheer muslin, plain or embroidered. This is a very old style revived, yet it has all the charm of absolute freshness.

We saw lately at the Metropolitan Furnishing Rooms a most poetic evening costume which had been ordered, from Newport, by a beautiful blonde. The order ran "get me up something new and white for Monday evening's hop." "The dress was a success, everybody present almost died with envy when I sailed in," wrote the beautiful blonde to the Metropolitan Furnishing Rooms. And as the toilette was as simple as it was elegant, and as any lady of ingenuity can make one from description, we will describe it.

The dress was of white tarleton, and had seven skirts, rising above one another like waves of surf, the under skirt was made to trail considerably; every skirt was gored in front and very full in the back widths: the bottoms were faced with bias white satin, which facing grew broader till it reached the under skirt where it was two fingers deep: the low corsage was of silk and was very curiously made, with a peak in front and behind, being laced up the back with white silk lacings; the side pieces of the body were cut a yard long and trimmed around the ends and up the sides as far as the waist with tulle ruches; these were tied behind in a careless knot and caught up as if by accident, but really by the highest art, two of the upper skirts forming a graceful and elegant panier; above the low corsage and attached to it was a yoke of tarleton, covered with tulle ruchings, so as to completely hide the tarleton; it looked like the feathery crests of foam and pre-eminently fitting—fitting too were the great profusion of pearls of the purest, clearest water, which the lady wrote she wore with it.

We would like to say here, that ladies at a distance wishing toilettes made up, can be accommodated at the Metropolitan Furnishing Rooms on the shortest notice. Those desiring it, too, can have samples of goods sent them from which to select, and perfectly fitting costumes can be secured by ladies sending accurately the length of skirt required, back and front measure, also a loose measure around the bust, directly under the arms; measure around the waist, also the length of waist from under the arm to the bottom of the waist; and the length of sleeve from the underside of arm. Preference as to trimming or style of arranging it may be stated, or it may be left to the taste of the modiste. The system of cutting in this establishment is perfect, and that all the sewing is done on the Grover and Baker Family Machine is the best possible guarantee that it will be as durable as beautiful. The address is 495 Broadway. We saw lately at these rooms a baby's outfit ordered from a settlement on the Union Pacific railroad. All the details showed good sense and more knowledge of the requirements of little babies than are usually evinced in furnishing rooms. One thing that struck us was a change of little red-riding-hood cloaks, one of white and one of salmon-colored opera flannel—one with pinked, the other with embroidered edges; also, Japanese washing silk summer cloak, with a large hood of silk grenedine of the same shade as the cloak—the hood being large enough when drawn over to cover the baby's face like a veil, thus protecting it from mosquitoes, flies, &c.

JAPONICA.

CURE FOR THE HEADACHE.—At one time or another, and especially during the warm weather, all of us suffer with the headache. The following is recommended on high medical authority as a cure:

Two drachms of bisulphate of carbon in solution, poured upon cotton wool, with which a small, wide mouthed, glass stoppered bottle is half filled. When this remedy is to be used, the mouth of the bottle is to be applied closely, so that none of the volatile vapor may escape, to the temple, or behind the ear, or as near as possible to the seat of pain, and to be held from three to five minutes. After it has been applied for a minute or two, a sensation is felt as if several leeches were biting the part, and after the lapse of two or three minutes more, the smarting will become rather severe, but will subside almost immediately after the removal of the bottle. It may be reapplied, if necessary, three or four times a day. It is very seldom that any redness of the skin is produced.

The surgeons reports show that our armies have suffered greatly from chills and fever which is induced by the miasma and change of climate to which they are exposed. They also find Ayer's Ague Cure is an effectual remedy for this distemper, and are urging the government to adopt it within the regulations. The Surgeons-General hesitates, because it is put up in a proprietary form.—However great that convenience to the public, he prefers the physicians of the army should give their own directions for the doses. Whatever professional pride may dictate, he knows as well as we do, that Dr. Ayer's "Cure" is an almost perfect antidote for the Ague, and that the soldiers should have the benefit of it, as well as the people.—[Washington (D. C.) Correspondent.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The many friends of Major Wm. I. Vestal will regret to learn of his death, May 31st at North Bend, Nebraska, of Bilious Colic, after an illness of but a few hours. Major Vestal was a native of one of the mountain counties of this State, and came through the lines previous to the surrender, and entered in business with Geo. Mills Joy, publishing the N. C. Times. Geo. McKnight (well known as Asa Hartz who lately died at New Orleans) soon bought Mr. Joy's interest and they continued in business until Spring of 1866, when Geo. McKnight retired and the paper was conducted by Major Vestal until October following when he decided to go to the West to engage in agricultural and commercial pursuits. He was a true christian, honored and respected by all who knew him.—Newbern Times.

A great many side hits are being made at the PLANTATION BITTERS by a score or two of disinterested friends, who are endeavoring to imitate or counterfeit them. It is all of no use. The people won't be imposed upon. PLANTATION BITTERS are increasing in use and popularity every day.—They are in the same sized bottle, and made just as they were at first.—They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant and are exhausted nature's great restorer. The recipe and full circular are around each bottle.—Clergymen, Merchants, and persons whose sedentary habits induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart lack of appetite, liver complaint, &c., will find immediate and permanent relief in these Bitters. But, above all, they are recommended to weak and delicate females and mothers.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

A WHIFF OF EXULTATION.—Our smoking editor—for it would seem that every daily paper, however well regulated, is doomed to have one smoker on its editorial staff—our smoking editor has been shut up in measureless contentment since Saturday last. The day which brought thrilling recollections of our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor—being the Fourth of July, as hereabouts observed—brought with it also a Yacht Club Pipe from the great house of Lorillard, in New York City, per U. S. Express, addressed to the fumigating journalist aforementioned, and by him welcomed with double-leaded transports of joy. Lorillard is the Napoleon—nay, the Grant, of the tobacco business; and this pipe, even the Reverend George Trask would be compelled to admit, is an immaculate beauty.

The smoking editor is ordinarily at the bottom of the heap. The other editors outnumber him and are down on him. They mould the policy of the paper and compel him to clip from his exchanges articles breathing a deadly hostility to the flavorous weed, which he does with helpless submission, gazing tearfully through a cloud of tobacco smoke at the self-convicting extracts. But on an occasion like the present, he wildly throws off the yoke of their dominion, flashes his lucifer in their very faces, and burns incense to the beneficent Lorillard.—Against all remonstrance he closes his resolute lips upon his amber mouthpiece, and his only response is a silent but significant whiff, as he consigns these paragraphs to the copy-box, and calmly abides the issue.—Springfield Daily Republic, July 8, 1869.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

A FAMILY MEDICINE.

The PAIN KILLER is a purely vegetable compound; and, while it is almost efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in the most unskillful hands. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has, without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of Cholera than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy.

THE PAIN KILLER.—We have known the high character of this medicine, and that it is used with great success and satisfaction in our very best families. It is the favorite medicine of our missionaries in heathen lands, where they use it more than all else together for the diseases that abound in those warm climates. It should be kept in every house, and be in readiness for sudden attacks of sickness.—Christian Press.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE GREAT MEDICAL MISTAKE

Of former days was an utter neglect of sanitary precautions. No efficient means were adopted for the prevention of sickness.—Sewerage was unknown in cities; drainage was rarely attempted in the county. Heaps of offal were left to rot in the public streets, and domestic cleanliness, the great antidote to febrile diseases, was sadly neglected. It is not so now. Wise laws, philanthropic institutions, and a vigilant sanitary police, have, to a great extent, remedied the evil. Nor is this all. PREVENTIVE MEDICATION has helped materially to lessen the rates of mortality.—It is not too much to say that TENS OF THOUSANDS escape sickness in unhealthy seasons in consequence of having INVIGORATED THEIR SYSTEMS IN ADVANCE by a course of H STETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This pure and powerful vegetable tonic and alterative comprises the extracts and essences of a variety of roots and herbs, renowned for their strengthening soothing, vitalizing and purifying properties. These medicinal agents are incorporated with a spirit absolutely free from the acrid poison which defiles, more or less, all the liquors of commerce, and their effect is diffused through the whole frame by this active, yet harmless stimulant. The result is such a condition of the system as renders it all but impervious to the exterior causes of disease, such as damp fog, sudden alternations of temperature, &c. Strength and the perfect regularity of all the functions of the body, are the best safe guards against atmospheric poison and the effects of unwholesome water, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the best strengthening and regulating medicine at present known. For dyspepsia and biliousness they are a SPECIFIC ABSOLUTE.

DUTCHER'S LIGHTNING FLY-KILLER! Death to the Living! Long live the Killers! Sold by Dealers Everywhere!

MANHOOD.—IN THE YOUNG AND RISING generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversivns of the ever changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

THE APPROACHING TOWNSHIP ELECTION.

We apprehend it is generally understood that the election for Township officers is to come off next Thursday, being the first Thursday of August, and we hope the citizens of this Township are prepared to do their duty.

As there are two Tickets and several Independent Candidates before our Township citizens, it may not be deemed inexpedient to make a brief statement of how matters stand. It is this—

There being six Justices of the Peace required for the Township of Goldsboro', the Republican portion of our population—we mean of our voting population—being considerably in the majority, resolved, for the sake of harmony, and the more efficient administration of the laws and the management of our various interests, very magnanimously proposed that, as there were nothing but petty local matters to divide us, these should be thrown into the back ground for the sake of peace. A public meeting for this purpose (!) was convened, the executive portion of which was composed—the major part—of Conservatives, and a harmonized compromize ticket was unanimously recommended by the committee, and this committee consisted of three Conservatives and two Republicans. We can only guess at why this ticket was not ratified by the meeting—the petty offices were not sufficiently numerous to afford a plate for every aspirant!

A Conservative meeting was subsequently called, a new ticket put before the people, and this, we hear, is called the "STRAIGHT TICKET." All we shall say of it is—if it be a straight ticket it has been brought into existence by a sort of meandering obstetrics not very creditable to its accoucheurs. This is all we have to say of it. Indeed, it is questionable if we have not already dignified the thing too much; and the less said of it the better for the credit of the parties concerned, for there is, we hear, one or two respectable men mixed up with it.

Of the gentlemen running as Independent Candidates we have nothing to observe, farther than that we hear Olin Coor is emigrating (!) a little beyond the confines of the limits of veracity, that is, if what we hear be true. The statement, however, is so absurd that we may not state it here, nor would we, but to let Mr. Coor understand that perhaps some one is sticking on to him.

Of the Compromise ticket we shall not speak, as we happen, with other of our Republican friends, to feel personally interested. Measure us, weigh us, look at us, (and in doing so you can't but admire us) and you will be compelled to say—"Whitaker is the cut for a J. P.," and he avers that every man on the Compromise ticket is a Whitaker in ability, and the citizens will, on next Thursday, confirm the assertion. Come out to the Barbecue to-morrow—allons!

☞ Our market is bountifully supplied with Watermelons, at prices varying from five to twenty cents. The finest we have seen this season came from the farm of Mr. S. A. Moses, who sent into town, on Thursday, a wagon load which ranged in weight from 20 to 40 pounds each. One of the largest, measuring thirty-six inches in circumference, was sent to our sanctum, with the express understanding that it was not to be puffed, which we don't intend to do; but before we got through with it, our Aldermanic proportions were puffed to their utmost tension.

28TH OF AUGUST.

The First Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, will come off at Tucker Hall, in the City of Raleigh, on the 28th of this month. The Tickets are going off rapidly, and but a few are left on hand at this Agency. Read the description of the valuable property to be disposed of, and call at once and procure a ticket. All the prizes will be drawn and you may be the lucky man. Try a ticket.

☞ We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. W. Gulick, the successor of Mr. J. E. Nash, in the book and stationery business. His place of business is at the stand occupied by Mr. Nash. Our friend Gulick has a very superior business capacity, and much energy and enterprise, and we wish him a host of customers and a plenty of greenbacks.

☞ A notice to clear out is not always the most agreeable in the world; indeed, it would, under certain circumstances, be deemed quite rude; but when Messrs. Weil & Bros. announce that they are clearing out, at reduced figures, their large and fashionable stock of clothing and furnishing goods, there will be very few, we opine, who will take the slightest offence.

YOU'D BETTER SETTLE.—We see from a notice published by Mr. S. P. Wright, Deputy Collector for the 2d District of North Carolina, that he will be at this place on August 11th to collect the Annual, Special and Income Tax. Persons who have not paid these taxes had better do so now in order to avoid the penalty and expense incurred by delay.

THE PLANTER AND FARMER.—The July number of this excellent work has been on our table for several weeks, and we have no hesitation in saying that it is just the thing for every farmer. The printing is well executed, and the reading matter good and abundant. Address, C. Williams, Richmond, Va., with $2 enclosed, and you will receive it one year.

Says the Standard we are requested to call the attention of the officers of Subordinate Lodges in this State to the fact, that if they, or any individual Mason, desires to get up "The Work" as adopted by the Grand Lodge at its last communication, and will correspond with R. W. Best, Grand Custodian, he will send lecturers who are thoroughly posted and well qualified to teach.

JOURNALISM.—Col. S. D. Pool, of the Newbern Journal of Commerce, contemplates establishing a newspaper in Norfolk, Va. The Colonel is an able and experienced editor, and we wish him success in his new field of labor.

KOSKOO, the great Liver Invigorator, Blood Purifier, and Renovator, prepared by Dr. J. J. Lawrence, the celebrated Physician and Chemist, is a SAFE, PLEASANT, and RELIABLE remedy, for the PREVENTION and CURE of all diseases caused by a TORPID LIVER, IMPURE BLOOD, DISORDERS of the KIDNEYS, or DEBILITY of the NERVOUS SYSTEM.

It REGULATES the secretions, ERADICATES all HUMORS or TAINTS, restores lost or wasted nervous power, and at the same time builds up and imparts tone and vigor to the whole system.

At a late meeting of the stockholders of the Chatham, N. C., railroad, held in Raleigh, the following gentlemen were elected as directors for the ensuing year: Dr. W. J. Hawkins, George W. Mordecai, Joseph B Batchelor, George Little, S. S. Royster, C. H. K. Taylor and Joseph B. Littlejohn, and at a meeting of the Board of Directors, held after adjournment of the stockholders' meeting, Dr. W. J. Hawkins was re-elected president of the comyany and W. W. Vass secretary and treasurer.

MASONIC DUTY.—None have stated the duties of Masonry more succintly and clearly than De Witt Clinton. In 1793 he said: "A Mason is bound to consult the happiness and promote the interests of his brother; to avoid everything offensive to his feelings; to abstain from reproach, censure and unjust suspicion; to warn him of the machinations of his enemies; to advise him of his errors; to advance the reputation of his family; to protect the chastity of his house; to defend his life, his property, and, what is dearer to a man of honor, his character, against unjust attacks; to relieve his wants and his distress; to distill; into his mind proper ideas of conduct in the department of life which he is called to fill; and let me add, to foster his schems of interest and promotion, if compatible with the paramount duties a man owes the community.

COTTON FIELD DESTROYED BY LIGHTNING.—We find the annexed singular statement in the Columbus (Ga.) Inquirer of the 20th instant:

Mr. Jas. T. Holland told us yesterday that he thought until one of the late storms that he had suffered from "bad luck" all that could be required of him, but one more lick, and that from the most unexpected direction, fell on him a few days ago in the shape of lightning. He says about one-half an acre of his best cotton, averaging nearly three feet high, was struck by lightning, and the cotton and every living thing of whatever kind were killed as dead as December. He says the earth itself seems so paralyzed by the stroke that it has lost all its vegetating forever. Mr. Holland's plantation is only a few miles west of the city, in Lee county Alabama, and as singularly as the fact stated is he is too well known for any one to question its truth. Lightning rods in cotton fields would look queer.

BRICK POMEROY has turned up as a temperance lecturer. We have ceased to feel any interest in him. It is like a lion turned vegetarian.

A FEW days since a well known lawyer of Waterbury, Conn., bought a railroad ticket for New Haven, and after taking a seat in the cars found on looking over his change, that the agent had given him one dollar too much. He accordingly returned, and informing the agent of his mistake, handed back the money. For a moment the agent stood speechless, then he grasped him by the hand and exclaimed, "Please stand still one moment, sir, and let me look at you—and a lawyer too!"

We should welcome back the Brazillian exiles to their native land. Hopeless of their own country after the downfall of slavery and the Confederacy, these Southerners tried their fortune, in a country where slavery and imperialism are yet in the ascendant. They failed, and they have returned to our shores weary and heartsbroken. They will find that the South is again enjoying the privilege of free institutions, that it is again growing rich, and that it has now a brighter prospect before it than ever. We wish them good fortune hereafter, in their own sunny clime, under the Star-Spangled Banner.—Philadelphia Post.

A MAN has appeared in a country district of Poland who pretends to be our Saviour, come again to save the world. He has selected twelve apostles, and pretends to heal the sick. Having gained considerable popularity, he is now turning to politics. He denounces the peasantry for their indifference to the rising of 1863, he calls upon them to repent and prepare for new efforts, and prophesies the speedy re-establishment of the old Polish Kingdom.—The authorities might look with indifference upon the religious pretention of the impostor, but they naturally do not feel quite so easy about passionate appeals to the people to rise against the existing government. They are, therefore, using all means to put the movement down. They are apparently finding the task a somewhat more difficult one than they had at first anticipated.

A CURIOUS STORY.—Michigan papers state that a young man named George Denslow, living near Rome Centre in that state, dreamed on the night of March 13 that he was deaf and dumb, and on waking was horrified to find that he could neither speak nor hear. From that time till the 4th of May, fifty-three days, he remained totally deaf and dumb.—On the evening of that day, while returning from the field where he had been at work, an odd feeling came over him, and he was obliged to lean against the fence for support. Presently he heard a bird sing, and he found that his voice had returned to him. During this suspension of voice and hearing he had enjoyed uncommonly good health.

NEW GREENBACK DOLLAR.—The Treasury department, it is stated, will soon issue new United States notes of the denomination of one dollar, the plates for which are now being engraved. Upon the new notes the bust of Washington will be substituted for the vignette of Chief Justice Chase. This is in accordance with an act of Congress, which prohibits the likeness of any person now living from being on the face of the national currency.

☞ We are requested to announce that a meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company will be held at the Truck House on Wednesday evening next, at 8½ o'clock, and it is hoped that all interested in the welfare of the Company will be punctual in attendance.

LOST.—See advertisement of small Gold stud, with set, lost, which appears in our to-day's issue.

The Wilmington (Illinois) Independent, edited by Mr. Steele, says: "A printer last week proposed to go into partnership with us. His name is Doolittle. The firm name would sound very bad, either way you put it—'Steal and Do Little,' or 'Do Little and Steal.' We can't jine. One of us would soon be in the poor house, and the other in the penitentiary."

A "SNAKE STORY."—The Petersburg Index tells the following hard one "on snakes":

Evening before last Mr. Chas. E. Hughes, a young man between fifteen and sixteen years of age, while lying asleep at his brother's store in Blandford, was awakened by a very curious sensation about his face. On opening his eyes he was amazed to find his body encircled by a huge black snake, and the head of the reptile in close proximity to his mouth. The snake was evidently inhaling the young man's breath, or endeavoring to insert its head in his mouth, and it was the cold contact with the face that awakened him. The impudent reptile, on being shaken off, managed to escape. It is said to be very long and very large. Shortly before going to sleep Mr. Hughes drank a quantity of milk, and it is supposed the snake was attracted by its odor in the young man's breath.

THE INEVITABLE MOSQUITO made his appearance last night, in our bedroom, said "how are you," in a sort of buzzing whisper, shook hands with the tip end of our nose and ended his musical career in attempting to make the acquaintance of our left ear. If it is any consolation to his surviving relatives, we can say he died with his face to the foe, and a song of triumph on his lips.

METHODIST LAY DELEGATION.—Since our last issue, says the New York Methodist of the 24th instant, we have heard from a large number of churches, the votes of which amount to 12,432, of which 8,999 are for lay delegation, and 3,433 against. This, with our previous vote, gives an aggregate vote of 107,605, of which 78,536 are affirmative, and 29,072 in the negative, giving a majority for lay delegation of 49,465.

WHAT IS AN ACRE OF LAND.—An acre of land contains 4,840 square yards, or 43,560 square feet. The price here varies from $25 to $500 per acre. At $434 per acre, the square yard is ten cents. Land is really the cheapest thing in the market. In every "choice Havana" we smoke, away goes the price of a yard of land. An acre of land will hold 300 peach or pear trees, or 900 grape vines, and if well cultivated and fertilized will return from $500 to an indefinite amount, according to the thoroughness of culture.

ADVICE TO BATHERS.—The Royal Humane Society publish the following recommendations:—Avoid bathing within two hours after a meal. Avoid bathing when exhausted by fatigue or from any other cause. Avoid bathing when the body is cooling after prespiration, but bathe when the body is warm, provided no time is lost in getting into the water. Avoid chilling the body by sitting or standing naked on the banks or in boats afer having been in the water.—Avoid remaining too long in the water—leave the water immediately there is the slightest feeling of chilliness. Avoid bathing altogether in the open air if, after having been a short time in the water, there is a sense of chilliness, with numbness of the hands and feet. The vigorous and strong may bathe early in the morning on an empty stomach. The young, and those that are weak, had better bathe three hours after a meal—the best time for such is from two to three hours after breakfast. Those who are subject to attacks of giddiness and faintness, and those who suffer from palpitation and other sense of discomfort at the heart, should not bathe without first consulting their medical adviser.—By order of the Committee Lambton Young, Secretary.

A man of genteel appearance, whose name we did not learn, while taking a lunch at the Astor House, with a most vigorous lunge stuck a large threepronged dining-fork into his own mouth. He was not materially injured, there being a piece of cold roast lamb on the end of the weapon!

Mrs. Chibbles has great ideas about her husband's military powers. "For two years," says she, "he was lieutenant in the horse marines, after which he was promoted to the captaincy of a regular squad of sapheads and minors.

THE FOLLOWING LINES

Supposed to have been written by a friend in Belfast, Ireland, to a friend in Goldsboro', N. C., have been handed us for publication:

Och, Denis, a hagur! I'm going to be afther
A writing a letther will make your heart glad;
The "Establishment's" come to a mighty dishashter,
And with joy, all the naybors 'round here, are half mad.
The bloated religion of Luther and Harry,
Bess, Edward and Billy the Dutchman's no more;
And the lords, (Bless the Lord! for His plans won't miscarry,)
Had to Gladstone succumb, and tithespigs are no more.

Then Denis, my honey! och can't yes come over,
And see poor ould Ireland relieved of the best?
You'll find us—at least if not living in clover,
Still able to give yes a dhrop of the best.
Now the protestant boys, and the "stiff-necks,"* God bless them,
Having nothing to fight for, widh us will agree;
And the "peelers,"—in garments of peace we'll soon dress them,
And we'll live all like kings here, ma cusha machree!

And my Biddy,—by gorra! I scarce can describe her,
She's nearly half crazy widh parfect consate;
And she smiles in my ear, as I sit down beside her,
"Pat, now won't the childher get something to ait?"
These overgrown buddaghs, bad luck to their paunches,
If they live by their gospel, ohierna! they'll stharve,
'Tis my sowls own belief they'll ait less roasted haunches,
And the mutton's they'll earn will be aisy to carve.

Then, Denis, avourneen!—if but on a kayle
'Bout Christmas, or Aisther, or Pathrick's day,—
Come over and see us; no agent, or bailie,
In future can sear us, our rints we can pay.
Ould Harry's incubus, the big-bellied recthors,
In my own darling Irish, way, now, pog ma hone,
Freed from peelers, and parsons, and church-rate collectors,
Plaise God, we'll now live and enjoy what's our own.

*"Stiff-necks"—As Presbyterians deem it a popish custom to bow the head at the name of Jesus, the Irish, with their natural causticity attribute this want of respect to a stiffness in the neck.

THE SPANIARDS are reported badly beaten in engagements at Remedois and Sagua la Grande the latter having lasted seven hours, and having ended with a loss to the Spaniards of 300 out of 1,500. General Quesada was sanguinely believed to have cut off the Spanish troops at Nuevitas and Puerto Principe. This news being strictly true, we should say that Spanish power in Cuba was almost ended. The muster of the Spanish squadron in Havana may have reference to the end.

SUT LOVENGOOD AT A "CANDY PULLIN."

I had a heep ub trouble last Krismas and Ile tell yu how it happened. Deken Joneses gals give a candy pullin, and I a stool as tha sa in North Karliny and so over I goese. Sister Poll and me went together, and when we got to old man Joneses the house was chuck fnil. Dog mi kats ef thar was was room to turn around. Thar was Suse Karlins—shese as big as a skinned hoss—and six other Karliness and all the Scrogginess, and Williamses, and Simonses, and Peddigrews and the school master and his gal, besides the old Deken and the Dekenses and enuff little Dekenses to set up a half duzzen young folks in the famili bizness.

Well, bymes-by the pot begun to bile, and then the fun begun. We all got our plates ready and put flour on our hans to keep the candy from sticken and then we pitched into pullin. Wozzent it fun? I never saw sich laffin and cattin for Em. Simmons. Her and me expex to trot in double harnis one ov these daze. She made a candy goos for me. Wozzent it fun? Then we got to throwing candy balls into one another's hair and running from one side of the house to tuther and out in the kitchen, till everything on the place woz gaumed all over with candy. I run till I woz out ov breth and set down to rest a spell. I sot on a pine bench and Em. Simmons sot close to me. Wozzent it fun? Suze Harkess, confound her pickter, throwed a candy ball sock in one of my ize. I made a bulge to run after her and heern sumthin rip. My stars alive wozzent I picked? I looked around and thar woz the gaubull eend uv my bran nu briches stickin to the pine bench. I backed up against the wall sorter craw-fish like and grinned.

'Sut,' sez sister Poll, 'whot's the matter?'

'Shet up,' sez I.

'Sut,' sez sister Poll, 'cum awa from that wall. Yu'le git all over greezy.'

'Let her greeze,' sez I, and I sot down on a wash board that was lyin across a tub, feelin wuss than an old made at a weddin. Purty soon I felt somethin hurt and purty soon it hurt again. Ice—whiz! I jumped 10 feet hi, kickt over the tub, out flu old Joneses Krismus turki, and you ought to seed me git. I cut for tall timber, now, you jist bet. I jumped stake and rider fenses and smashed down bresh like a runawa herikane till I got home and went to bed and stade thar tu daze. Ef old Dekens Joneses barn burns down next winter and I'm arrested fur it an enny boddy pears as a witness against me Ile bust his doggaund head! Thems missentyments.

SUT LOVEGOOD.

N. B.—Wozzent it fun?

—A New Orleans jury declared a man to have come to his death by an "unknown cart." About on a par with this is the Philadelphia verdict respecting a man who had been crushed to death in a mill, when the jury remarked, "No blame can be attached to the machinery."

The man in advance of his time—One who has been knocked into the middle of next week.

A poor Irishman seeing a crowd of people approaching, asked what was the matter. He was answered, "A man going to be buried." "Oh," replied he, "I'll stop and see that, for we carry them to be buried in our country."

"Come here Master Tommy, do you know A, B, C's?" "Yiz zur I know a bee sees."

"What!" thundered the enraged skipper, "have the ungrateful scoundrels the audacity to assert that they don't get enough to eat? Confound their insatiable gluttony! Give them three herrings for dinner, Joe; give them three herrings, and let them bust, blast them!"

Papa," said a little boy to his parent, "are not sailors very small men?" "No, my dear," answered the father; "pray what leads you to suppose that they are so small?" "Because," replied the young idea, smartly, "I read the other day of a sailor going to sleep in his watch."

TRAGEDY.

The sun was settin' like a hen
Upon his western nest,
And if he wasn't purty red,
Why, then, may I be blest.

Young Samyule Pod, old Podses son,
Was lookin' at the sky,
When from the cow yard back of him
There came a female cry.

Upon the bosom of a fence
Reclined Jerushew Dow,
While at her cum, with hidgus roar,
A ramparageous cow.

"Oh, laws a massy! help me, Sam!"
Jerushy did exclaim;
And Samyule drawed his jack-knife forth,
And then put back the same.

"Sweet maid," he said, courageously,
"Just hold the critter's horns,
Or else when I cum up sne'll be
A tredáin on my corns!"

She quickly smiled her gratichude,
When swift the varmint stoops,
And in a moment had Miss Dow
A hangin' by her hoops.

The Samyule's latent dander riz,
And with a fearful frown
He seized a heavy cistern pole
And knocked the old cow down.

The conkerin' hero dropped his pole,
And flew to where Miss Dow
Stood leanin' up agin the fence,
A yellin' at the cow.

Sez he, "Jerusey, promise me,
Before again we part,
That you will take the name of Pod,
And ease my achin' heart."

Sez she, "Mr. Pod, Sir, if you please,
And if you must know all—
I've promised Alickander Bangs
To marry him next fall."

Poor Samyule paused to hear no more
But burst out into groans,
And pylled his hair and scratched himself,
And tore his pantaloons.

The dark duck pond invited him,
He plunged beneath the wave,
And with a groan upon his lips
He sank into that grave.

After Marriage—"Henry, love, I wish you would throw away that book and talk to me. I feel so dull."

(A long pause and no reply.)

"Henry, dear, my foot's asleep."

"It is? Well, don't talk; you might wake it up.

Swearing by Proxy.—Wednesday afternoon a lady reached the passenger depot in this city on one of our railroads just as the train on which she desired to take passage moved away. She was extremely anxious to get aboard the train, but was left; which was not right. As she stood gazing upon the train her armfull of packages and her eyes full of tears, a gentleman arrived at the depot on a full run, with a carpet-sack in his hand, his coat on his arm, and his face streaming with perspiration. He, too, wanted to take the same train, but, alas! was too late. As he looked on the train, now fast moving away, he sat down his carpet-bag, wiped his face, and very emphatically and deliberately said; "Damn that train!" The lady heard him, and, smiling upon him with a lady's sweetness said; "Thank you sir." He had un-doubtedly expressed her sentiments exactly.—Dayton (O.) Ledger.

The following "notice" is posted on a fence in a London suburb:—"Whoever is found trespassing on these grounds will be shot and prosecuted.

A new member arose to make his first speech, and in his embarrassment began to scratch his head. "Well," exclaimed Sheridan, "he has got something in his head after all."

"You had better ask for manners than money," said a finely dressed gentlemen to a beggar boy who had asked for alms.

"I asked for what I thought you had most of," was the reply.

The way to make a tall man short is to ask him to lend you a few dollars.

Tom—"Hallo, Fred! what, you writing poetry?" Fred—"Yes I am writing an owed (ode) to my tailor." Tom—"What is the time and tune?" Fred—"Time sixty days. It is set to notes of mine in his possession."

"Mr. Trim," said a wag, "how do you keep your books?" "Oh, by double entry." "Double entry. How is that?" "Oh easy enough; I make one entry and father makes the other."

The only fish near the coast of Ireland is the sole fish.

"Dick, you have a hole in your trowsers." "Well, who cares, it will wear longer than a patch." "Yes," says Sam, "and wider too."

TESTIMONIALS;

Williamston, Martin Co., February 22nd, 1869.

Mr. Jno. R. Congleton, Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Sir:—For the last eight or ten years I have been exceedingly troubled with a painful and distressing case of the Piles. Hearing "Congleton's Vegetable Salve" spoken so highly of as the great cure for Piles, I purchased in March, 1868, while in Washington, N. C, one box, and was soon relieved, and by the time I had used the contents of the box, I was perfectly well, and have never had any return since. I consider myself entirely and permanently cured. I give this for the benefit of those who may be troubled with the same disease, believing thereby that I will be benefiting them, and recommending to them a most valuable medicine and worthy of great praise.

I have also used the salve for Sore Throat, and find it the best medicine I ever had in my family for that complaint.

Respectfully yours,

JAS H ELLISON.

I have tried various remedies, but found no cure until I was advised by a friend in Raleigh to try your Salve, which I have done, and am at present perfectly well I have used only one box, which I think, it judiciously used, will cure any case like mine.

I would advise all afflicted with said disease to go and do likewise

TESTIMONIALS:

Raleigh N. C, Jan 16, 1869.

Mr Congleton:—On the 14th inst., I came to town with considerable pain and swelling in my right knee I got a bottle of the "American Rheumatic Liniment" and applied it to my knee, which was greatly relieved and assuaged in ten hours. I then applied it again and by night was so far cured as to forget to apply the remedy; this pain had resisted the application of Liquid Opodeldoc for a week without any perceptible improvement, causing a limp in my walk at sometime and fears of inability to walk at all.

Respectfully,

THOS BAILY,

Mr. Congleton:—Dear Sir: My little son was for four months suffering with pains in his legs and weekness in his knees so he scarcely could get about and walked with great difficulty. I was fearful that he would lose the use of his legs entirely, which gave me a great deal of trouble and anxiety, hearing of the American Rheumatic Liniment, I purchased one bottle and commenced using it, and by the time I had used half of the bottle, my son was greatly relieved and could walk very well, and after using the whole bottle, he is now perfectly well, with many thanks to you and praises for the "American Rheumatic Liniment" I am yours, &c.,

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only Scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all Complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "Sapurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

AYER'S

Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of Miasmatic Countries.

We are enabled here to offer the community a remedy which, while it cures the above complaints with certainty, is still perfectly harmless in any quantity. Such a remedy is invaluable in districts where these afflicting disorders prevail. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of Fever and Ague from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where Fever and Ague prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.
